

Year 5 Homework Grid

Term 1

Our exciting new term is based around our history unit: The Blitz. Below is a list of possible homework ideas you are invited to create with your child over the next term. We would expect at least 4 pieces of homework to be completed each term. There will be an opportunities each week for your child to share any work they have produced in class.

Baking Try cooking a recipe from the Second World War when rationing was in place. The Imperial War Museum has some great examples to try: https://www.iwm.org.uk/learning/cakes-made-from-carrots	Writing Write a short story about what you did in the summer holidays!	Mental Health and Well-Being Task Keep a gratitude journal for a week. Write down three things you feel grateful for each day.
Art Use your sketching skills to draw a WWII evacuee.	Map Task Can you mark on a world map who was fighting on the Allied and Axis sides of the war.	Read Why not spend some time in your local library? Here are the addresses of the libraries in our local area. Can you find a book about our history topic to read? Parks Library - Cavendish Square, Park, Swindon, SN3 2LZ Old Town Library - Arts Centre, Devizes Road, Swindon, SN1 4BJ Central Library - Regent Circus, Swindon, SN1 1QG
D/T Make a 3D model of an air raid shelter or a WWII Plane.	Music/Poetry Listen to some WWII era music. Try this Spotify album:  Which was your favourite song?	Research Research The Blitz, evacuation and rationing and present the information in a way of your choosing.

The Horrible Histories magazine is a fascinating read.

If you have enjoyed learning about WW2 then this is a potential read: The Valley of Lost Secrets by Lesley Parr.
